Mr. C. C. Sisson
Insignia Officer
Office of Civilian Defense
Washington, D. C.

Dear Clinton:

It has been my intention to write you for sometime with regard to this matter, but somehow it slipped my mind. We finally decided on an official Civil Air Patrol song, and we are having it published here in New York.

The cover of the sheet music has a design of our pilots wing which, as you know, embodies the basic design, that of the blue circle, white triangle, and red propeller. Is it necessary for the publisher of the song to receive permission from you in order to use this design on the cover?

If so, for your information, the name of the company is the Allied Music Corporation, RKO Building, Radio City, N.Y.

Yours sincerely,

EARLE L. JOHNSON
National Commander
