

OFFICE OF CIVILIAN DEFENSE
CIVIL AIR PATROL

OPERATIONS DIRECTIVE)
NO. 11)

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
WASHINGTON, APRIL 15, 1942

ORGANIZATION OF CIVIL AIR PATROL SQUADRONS

1. Maximum Strength

The maximum authorized aggregate strength for Civil Air Patrol Squadrons is 200 as shown in the Table of Organization presented in Operations Directive No. 6.

2. Minimum Strength

The minimum authorized aggregate strength for Civil Air Patrol Squadrons is hereby announced as 50, effective May 15, 1942. Prior to such date, Squadrons having an enrollment of less than 50 may be recruited up to this minimum strength and retain their identity as Squadrons. Otherwise, on that date, they will be reorganized as Flights and attached to the nearest Squadron in their respective Wings.

3. Enrollments

Henceforth, all enrollments in the Civil Air Patrol will be limited to Pilots, Observers, Mechanics, Radio Operators, Radio Mechanics, and Parachute Riggers except when, in the opinion of the Unit Commander, the enrollment of other specialists is necessary to meet operating requirements.

By direction of National Commander JOHNSON:

HARRY H. FIFE
Colonel, Air Corps
Training & Operations Officer
