Preface

2013 marked the 20 year anniversary of the 1993 floods. The flooding that occurred that year affected most of the state, and during that time, Civil Air Patrol was called out to perform many tasks. This year, Missouri wing celebrated the anniversary of the '93 floods and commemorated the hard work of its members. Over the year, many different activities and opportunities were provided for the members of Missouri Wing.

While we look at what has occurred 20 years ago, we also see everything that we have accomplished this past year. During 2013 we held many successful events and activities. Encampment, Cadet Competition, several SAREX's, Aviation Day, and Wing Conference are only the start of the things that MOWG has done this year.

I would like to thank all of the members that helped put this Wing History together. It is thanks to you that this document records all of the amazing progress that we have made this past year. I also want to thank all of the members of Missouri Wing, for they have been the people that have been going out and continuing our history. 2013 has been a busy year for all of us, and we have accomplished much. I look forward to creating the next chapter of Civil Air Patrol with all of you!

Chapter I: Introduction

Civil Air Patrol has been serving the nation for over 70 years, with a proud history dating back to the 1940's. Today, Missouri Wing Headquarters is located at Whiteman AFB. The wing is composed of 38 individual units within 5 groups. Missouri Wing is composed of over one thousand members, with roughly 400 cadet members and 700 senior members. This past year Missouri Wing has made great strides in the three main missions of Civil Air Patrol: Aerospace Education, Emergency Services, and Cadet Programs. Throughout the year many different activities and events had been held that have drawn from the experience of members throughout the Wing.

Multiple Search and Rescue Exercises were held throughout the Wing, helping ensure that our members are constantly prepared to serve their communities. A summer encampment was held at Camp Clark this year, with over 60 cadets graduating. Members were also quite busy with Aerospace Education, with cadet orientation flights being held throughout the Wing as well as a model rocketry symposium hosted by Group 3.

The highlight of the year was the Missouri Wing Conference, held in Lake of the Ozarks, Missouri. As with all Wing conferences, members celebrated the time and support Missouri Wing members had provided to the organization.

Chapter II: Emergency Services

Missouri wing has been very busy with maintaining its Search and Rescue capabilities.

Throughout the state training and exercises were held to ensure that our members were well trained and ready to deploy at a moment's notice.

Chapter III: Aerospace Education

Missouri wing was incredibly active in Aerospace Education this year. Several model rocketry Symposiums were held at Fort Leonard Wood. Many orientation flights were held throughout the Wing as well. Missouri Wing also participated in the 6th annual CyberPatriot Competition. Missouri Wing had nine teams participate this year, located all over the state.

Illustration 2: Model Rocketry Symposium held at Fort Leonard Wood on August 25, 2013

Chapter IV: Cadet Programs

The 2013 Missouri Wing Summer Encampment was held at Camp Clark, MO from 28th of July to August 4th. During this event, cadets were trained by some of the best and most experienced members in Missouri Wing, cadet and senior alike. Another big event in Cadet Programs was the 2013 Missouri Wing Color Guard Competition. The competition was held at Ike Skelton Training Center in Jefferson City on February 16. Four teams participated this year. These squadrons represented the best that Missouri had to offer. Springfield Regional Cadet Squadron came in first place this year.

Chapter V: Unit Narratives

Below are all unit narratives that were submitted for 2013.

NARRATIVE

INTRODUCTION

2013 was a year of change for the Harry S. Truman Composite Squadron (HST) as we had three changes of command. The number of members we had decreased slightly and then increased slightly. We currently have seven active cadets with nine on the roster and three active senior members with eight on the roster. This year we also moved our meeting location.

HST RELOCATION

As mentioned above, Major Durant took over the squadron and we relocated to the Emergency Operation Center (EOC) which is located at 950 N. Spring St., Independence MO, 64050. We kept our weekly meeting time of 1800-2100 on Monday nights. Captain Kenyon, who took charge on 13 January, 2014, is currently the squadron commander of HST.

SQUADRON ACTIVITIES

In 2013, HST participated in squadron level activities throughout the year. We scheduled and flew orientation flights for all but one cadet over the course of the year. We had three cadets earn milestone awards in 2013. Cadets Allison Warnock and Benjamin Lord both earned their Wright Brothers Awards and Cadet Ismael Arrocha earned his Billy Mitchell Award. HST participated in marshalling aircraft at the Lee's Summit Municipal Airport during the spring and summer. We also attended and helped out with the Grain Valley Squadron's Open House. HST participated in the September 7, 2013 Skyhaven Airshow, held in Warrensburg, MO. HST also sent a cadet to the Group 1 Bivouac on 25 October, 2013. Cadet Christen Nichols went to, and graduated from, the Kansas Wing Winter Encampment and was named Honor Cadet for the encampment. We are currently in the process of rebuilding the squadron. Our goals this year include recruiting more active cadets and senior members, winning the 2014 Missouri Wing Cadet Competition, attending and staffing more activities, achieving more milestone awards, getting the squadron ES certified, and learning to fly.

Missouri Wing Civil Air Patrol

HQ Group 2 – Missouri Wing NCR MO-032 Major Steve Aubuchon

2013 Historical Narrative

INTRODUCTION

Group 2 began the year with a new commander who was installed in mid-December of the previous year. The first task was to establish a set of goals and recruit a qualified staff that would be committed to retaining the quality of the group's assigned squadron and activities.

GOALS

The 2013 goals for Group 2 that were established in January were to submit all reports on time, create more training opportunities for all members, establish a group website, build a qualified and active staff, improve communication using all available resources, the group commanders and staff will routinely visit each squadron, increase assigned units participation in wing activities, and establish a team for "CyberPatriot" competition.

ACTIVITIES

Group 2 is honored to have many members with unique skills who remained busy in a variety of activities. The new commander kept the tradition of monthly meetings to disseminate information and foster collaboration among the squadrons assigned to the group and beyond.

Members of the group were instrumental in the reorganization of the Cadet Advisory Council in the Missouri Wing. The St Charles Composite Squadron was the first in the Missouri Wing to enroll in the Cyber Patriot competition. In March, 25 members of Group 2 (mostly cadets) from several squadrons collaborated to participate in the tour of Whiteman AFB. Group 2 sent a number of cadets, along with 6 senior members on staff, to the Missouri Wing encampment in July.

During the years, members of Group Two volunteered to share their experience by instructing at various professional development classes in various parts of the wing. Locally, Group 2 produced a Training Leaders of Cadets course in May.

There were training sessions to build members' operations qualifications. These sessions primarily trained scanners, GIIEP operators, aerial photographers, and mission radio operators. There was also a SAR Academy at National Guard Armory, Festus MO in the spring produced by Groups 2 and 4.

This training was necessary and put to good use as Group 2 was tasked with 4 ELT SAR missions, resulting in 4 non distressed finds. In late August Group 2 aircrews were tasked to photograph damage and document the path of a tornado.

Although two of the ten aircraft assigned to the Missouri wing were kept in hangers in Group 2, Group 2 pilots were accountable for a third of the total hours flown in the wing.

Grp2 members manned MOWG display at the SEMA conference in St. Charles. The group also provided most of the manpower support for MOWG Conference as well as 8 presenters at the break-out sessions. Group 2 organized and supported Wreath Across America ceremony at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery. Group 2 had large contingent at Aviation day at the state capitol in April.

TRANSITIONS

There were also transitions within Group 2 during 2013. Two Squadrons gained new commanders. Lt Col Tommy Gordon (MO 111) retired in June. His ceremony was supported by with a squadron color guard. In October Major David Nagle (MO 111) also retired. In November Lt Col Larry Kuban (MO 005) celebrated his 50th continuous year in CAP. Sadly, Lt Col Kuban passed away shortly after this anniversary. His memorial service was supported by a CAP cadet color guard. On 2 December, former C/Col Steven Gullberg (MO 098) perished in a plane crash in Puerto Rico.

AWARDS

In February 2013, the St. Charles composite squadron earned second place honors at the Missouri Wing Cadet competition. Lt Col David Miller won a Maj Howell Balsem CAP Public Affairs Exceptional Achievement Award in August.

Group 2 nominated 19 individuals and 3 squadrons for awards at the Missouri Wing Conference in September. For the year third year in a row, the Gateway Senior squadron was named the outstanding senior squadron in Missouri.

Individuals from Group 2 who were recognized as outstanding in their area were Character Development Instructor - 1st Lt Terry Romanko (MO-040), Public Affairs Officer 1st Lt David Chilenski (MO-111), Aerospace Educations Officer - Major Dan Gerbus (MO-040), Cadet Programs Officer - 1st Lt Adam Daubach (MO-040), Safety Officer - Capt Austin Worcester (MO-110), Cadet NCO - C/SMSGt Brooke Maynard (MO-040), Sr. Member - Maj Steve Aubuchon (MO-032).

CONCLUSION

In late December, Group 2 HQ achieved an overall grade of “Successful” for their Subordinate Unit Inspection. Coincidentally, Group 2 learned that they were to be enlarged by being assigned three squadrons from a neighboring deactivated group. That put an exclamation point to the end of a very good year.

Narrative

Our squadron began the 2013 year with nine cadets and three senior members active. We held meetings weekly at the Hannibal airport on Tuesday evening of each week at 1830. We missed a few meetings early in the year and in December as well due to hazardous weather. Our weekly meetings' schedule complied with all requirements of CAP cadet programs with an emphasis on the STEM curricula and aerospace education. Cadets and seniors participated in many of the activities outlined in the aerospace education modules workbooks. Twice in the year we produced model rocketry training exercises. Since we are based at an active airport, we had many excellent opportunities to observe transient single and twin engine aircraft, helicopters, spray planes, skydiving planes, and twice we observed small corporate jets. Cadets were able to observe these aircraft up close, ask questions, and learn about many of the idiosyncrasies of the different types of planes.

Cadets and seniors participated in one fly-in breakfast at a nearby airport. This provided an opportunity for cadets to practice their marshaling skills, display their drill skills and discipline, and generally "show the colors". We were very well received by all and thanked by many.

Another trip was requested by the Army Corps of Engineers for our squadron to assist in parking and marshaling an anticipated 10-15,000 people at the Halloween walk at Mark Twain Lake. We assisted in this activity in 2012 and it was a very enjoyable and educational experience. Sadly, the event was cancelled due to the "sequestration". Several other activities were cancelled due to inclement weather. We were able to conduct one or two sessions of "O" rides.

Missouri Wing Civil Air Patrol

We ended the year with four active seniors and seven cadets. We lost two cadets due to a family moving out of state. We have had several cadet candidates visit as well. Two of our members were able to take form five check rides. One member successfully completed the check and the other pilot was cancelled due to high winds.

Our squadron had a change of command. Capt. Dennis Turner had moved to another part of the state. Capt. Jim Current was appointed in his stead. With the appointment of Major Aubuchon as Group Two commander, we have been receiving a great deal of training and assistance. Major Aubuchon, Lt. Adam Daubach, and Master Sergeant Miller have been of great help in getting us “trained up”. We have a lot to learn and accomplish yet, but are acquiring more members and continue to maintain a “can do” attitude.

Two cadets attended encampment and performed well and were a great representation of our squadron. Capt. Current attended Wing conference at Lake of the Ozarks and assisted Major Aubuchon with a/v setup. It was a very good conference and a very good year for our squadron.

Group 3 HQ – Missouri Wing

NCR-MO-102

Lt Col William E. Sander

2013 HISTORY NARRATIVE

INTRODUCTION

2013 was a banner year for Group 3 Headquarters, Missouri Wing. Lt Col Bill Sander assumed command from Maj. Mike McCrady in October of 2012. Lt Col Sander's first action was to develop goals and a plan of action to improve Group interaction with subordinate units: MO-009 (Sedalia Cadet Squadron, Sedalia, MO), MO-018 (Central Missouri Composite Squadron, Columbia, MO), MO-117 (Saline County Composite Squadron, Marshall, MO), and MO-158 (Morgan County Flight, Versailles, MO); while also experiencing growth with absorbing MO-119 (119th East Central Composite Squadron) with the Group 4 deactivation and the project to re-activate MO-003 (Capital City Composite Squadron, Jefferson City, MO). With the support of a developing Group staff, Group 3 met most of its goals to provide several exciting events and activities for its members, participating actively throughout Missouri Wing.

2013 GOALS

Our first goal is having a robust Emergency Services (ES) Program. ES is a broad mission and our involvement is ever changing. We're making effort to play well with others and it's paying off. This will be accomplished by conducting SAREX's, COMEX's, and participation in Wing Exercises, Missions, and community activities.

Second, we must continue to cradle the AE program. AEX is a great tool for the Cadet Program. Field trips and Model Rocketry Symposiums are awesome. An Orientation Flight Day is also on tap in the very near future.

Missouri Wing Civil Air Patrol

Third, I envision a "Curry" weekend where new cadets can come and earn all of the required tasks for their Curry award. On day two we remediate those who quite didn't make it on day one and we introduce them to the ES mission with GES, ICS 100, and an ROA class; and if time/weather/and availability of Aircraft allow - Orientation Flights. These are first steps which can easily broaden once we get a good cadre of trainers and volunteers developed in Cadet NCO, SNCO, CGO, and FGO courses, symposiums, etc.

Fourth, to go along with cadet development, I firmly believe in Senior Member development, too. SLS's/CLC's/UCC's/etc. have already benched marked as the Group 3 Change of Command immediately precedes a CLC and UCC graduation. Also, mirroring the "Curry" weekend, conducting a lateral "Foundations" weekend is also plausible if there's a need.

All of these goals are obtainable and are proven successes in my past. You'll find that I make every effort to bring my goals and expectations to fruition. Yes, some of the successes I've had in the past may flop here and then again something that had mediocre results may now be a new bench mark success if we re-implement. Let's work together and I give you my word that Group 3 will make MO Wing, NCR, and CAP proud!

GOAL RESULTS

I am pleased to state that all of the aforementioned goals were exceeded except for the "Curry" weekend. Other activities conducted took precedence, but we plan to double our efforts to make it come to fruition in 2014.

GROUP ACTIVITIES

In support of the Emergency Services Mission, Group 3 conducted 6 Search and Rescue training Exercises (SAREX), 3 Communications Exercises (COMEX); 2 Disaster Relief Exercises, and support of 3 community Air Shows. Group 3 staff also participated in SEMA's Logistics Supply/Support Area's (LSA) train-the-trainer training as well as webEOC train-the-trainer training.

In support of the Aerospace Education Mission, Group 3 conducted 2 Model Rocketry Symposiums, received 3 STEM kits, participated in the AEX Program, and provided school age program activities during 2 airshows. Furthermore, we worked with area EAA Young Eagles activities and our Operations Officer, Lt Col Ted Forester, has provided Flight Training to 3 cadets and participated in the NCR Powered Flight Academy in Fremont, NE as a CFI.

In support of the Cadet Programs Mission, Group 3 concentrated local efforts on bolstering professional development of Cadet Programs Officers and Commanders by conducting 3 Training Leaders of Cadets (TLC) courses. We also sponsored a Cadet Leadership Academy in Columbia and fostered the Cadet Leadership School in Springfield, MO. Furthermore, several cadets and Senior members attended Encampment as attendees and staff.

In support of Professional Development, Group 3 conducted 2 Squadron Leadership Schools, 2 Unit Commanders Courses, and a Corporate Learning Course.

ACCOLADES

Several Group 3 members were recognized for their accomplishments in 2013. Most notably, the following received Wing Level Awards: Capt. Martin Alderman, Communications Officer of the Year; Capt. Karen Pearson, Public Affairs Officer of the Year; Cadet Capt. Medrano, Cadet Phase IV Officer of the Year; Cadet Lt Caleb Couture, Cadet Phase III Officer of the Year; Cadet Lt Cott, Frank G. Brewer Memorial Aerospace award. Additionally, the following members were Group Level Award Winners and Nominees for Wing Level Awards: Lt Col Dennis Pearson, Safety Officer of the year; Maj W. DiMarsico, Senior Member of the Year.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion, Group 3 had a banner year and exceeded the majority of its goals. We strive to complete and exceed goals set for 2014 while supporting our subordinate units, Missouri Wing, Civil Air Patrol, and the community partners we also support.

INTRODUCTION

During 2013, Group I was commanded by Maj. John Burrows. He promoted increased training and our group grew under his leadership. Capt. Austin Worcester joined Group staff as the Deputy Commander in June.

SQUADRON ACTIVITIES

Our squadron participated in Air Shows, and Joint Exercises involving FEMA, NGA, the National Guard and Missouri Task Force 1. Our senior members have also completed SLS and CLC courses, wing-wide exercises, commander calls, and the Wing Conference. Please see the chronological historical report for the list of activities.

NARRATIVE

INTRODUCTION

The Wentzville Composite squadron continues to meet at the Living Lord Lutheran Church in Lake St. Louis MO. meeting at 1830, every Monday. We have had some member turnovers during 2013; however, we finished the year with 27 mostly active members; 15 Cadets and 12 Senior Members.

SQUADRON ACTIVITIES

The Wentzville Composite Squadron was busy with participation in multiple activities during 2013. Highlighted among our activities were events that enhanced cadet experiences with flight operations including a visit to the St. Louis TRACON (Terminal Radar Approach Control Facilities), multiple O-Rides and Flight simulator use at Flight safety in St. Louis and at the St. Louis Science Center. Additionally, we had an opportunity to get Hot Air Balloon tethered rides, complementary of our squadron guest, Col. Carlton Sumner.

Emergency Services training and activities were a big part of our focus during 2013. We held several training sessions in Wentzville and participated in several other events held in other cities and with other groups.

In addition to flight related and Emergency Services events, we performed some community service activities, Color Guard duties for the Wentzville 4th of July Parade, the City of Wentzville Board of Alderman, local Wentzville, Winfield and Wright City schools, and for/with the American Legion Post in Wentzville. The Squadron also participated in Wreaths Across America in December.

The Wentzville Composite Squadron had 4 Cadets graduate from the Missouri Wing Summer Encampment at Camp Clark, 2 Cadets competed in Cyber Patriot Competition, 12 cadets participated in NRA Rifle Training at Busch Wildlife Rifle Range. Senior Members were active participants with the above activities and several other training and Emergency service activities.

Mid Rivers Senior Squadron

MO115

Capt. Peter Danza

Introduction

This year, Mid Rivers Senior Squadron went through a transition. With membership down and attendees at about 4 regular members, our commander Brian Thompson assumed Deputy Commander after several years of service as Commander, and Peter Danza took command Nov 1. Several officers had resigned and many who had been carrying a heavy load needed a break. The squadron is embarking in a new direction focused on Professional Development, given the reduced opportunity for ES activities and expiring qualifications. We have a few very dedicated members remaining who want to see the squadron grow.

Jack Thompson was promoted to Captain, achieved level 2, and was awarded a CAP achievement ribbon. Peter Danza was promoted to Captain, achieved level 3. Michael Putnam has joined the squadron.

NCR-MO-135

Maj Jeffrey Cunningham; CAP

NARRATIVE

INTRODUCTION

2013 proved to be a year of changes for MO-135. The year started off with Maj Eric Dean as commander, overseeing all the activities from the six squadrons comprising Group V. Personal dreams were becoming fulfilled for Maj Dean as his goal of becoming a law enforcement officer was becoming a reality. During this time, Deputy Commander Maj Jeff Cunningham stepped in to help lead the group during Maj Dean's absence. By August Major Dean decided to step back from his duties in CAP because of his career, so the command was turned over to Maj Cunningham. Shortly after the change of command Lt Col Garland Henson accepted the position as Deputy Commander. The main goals of the new command were to unify the squadrons of the Group with the result of moving forward together. Through the use of monthly commander's meetings, and participating in more activities together, the Group is moving more together towards the goal.

Platte Valley Composite Squadron

NCR MO-140

1st LT Kevin Oliver

INTRODUCTION

The Platte Valley Composite Squadron saw many changes in 2013. The biggest of these changes was that 1st LT Kevin Oliver was assigned the position of Deputy Commander in the first part of the year to begin learning the ropes, so that on November 11th, he would be ready to assume command from Captain Jesse Munoz, the past commander for 6 years.

Squadron Activities

The squadron is a very active squadron for both seniors and cadets. In addition to winning the “Squadron of Merit” award, we have held many senior classes and classes for cadets, including Great Start and Emergency Services classes. One of the big events our squadron does on an annual basis is visit the Tucker Leadership Lab. This is a High Adventure course that helps teach participants not only leadership skills through teamwork, but also teaches those “born leaders” followership. The highlight of the event is being able to work on the high ropes course about 45 feet over the ground! The squadron is also very active in volunteering at the Airline History Museum located at the Charles R Wheeler Downtown Kansas City Airport. We have helped with the Redbull Stunt team there, and the cadets and seniors had the opportunity to meet Kirby Chambliss, and get photos by his stunt plane.

Our squadron, with the help of our Booster Club, puts on a Dining Out event every year where multiple awards are presented to both cadets and senior. The event was held at the Airline History Museum, which was a great event location, with all the planes in the building. The main speaker for the event was Brigadier General (ret) Sam Mitchell, who is also on the US Air Force Academy application review board. In addition to Gen Mitchell, we had other military personnel present, including Col Kevin Brown, USAF, from the Command College at Ft. Leavenworth, KS. Maj. ### Future

Platte Valley plans to continue to charge into the future, with many classes for both cadets and seniors, and take a more active part of Group 1 command staff and activities. Our goal is to win the Regional Squadron of Distinction again, as we did for 2012.
