Boyle
Amendment to GM-65

NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS
WASHINGTON, December 24, 1942

Subject: Amendment to GM-65, 15 December, 1942

To: All Wing Commanders

1. Par. 1 of subject memorandum, sub-par. a, is hereby amended to read:

Tracking missions for Anti-aircraft Artillery

Minimum time	One Month
Maximum time	Two Months

2. Pilots assigned to the above duty will serve until properly relieved, and will not be so relieved until after the minimum time of service has expired.

3. This extension of time on duty is considered important by the Commanding Officers of the Army Units under whom these pilots are serving, and only in an emergency should an application for a pilot's relief from duty be made before the minimum duty time has expired.

By direction of National Commander JOHNSON:

Garnet N. Hughes
GARNET N. HUGHES
Captain, A. A. F.
Coordinating Officer
