Membership

North Carolina Wing's Senior Membership grew significantly from 885 to 941 (+6.33% - Sept 2017 to Sept 2018) and Cadet membership grew from 935 to 1083 (+15.8% - Sept 2017 to Sept 2018). It was the leading Wing within the Region to demonstrate significant growth in both Adults and Cadets.

SUMMARY NARRATIVE OF MAJOR ACTIVITIES

Chapter I OPERATIONS

2018 was a busy year for NCWG with the wing supporting relief operations for major disaster events, and numerous SAREX's. NCWG continues to have a robust operations tempo with actual missions and regular training in all areas of emergency services; this is shown in WIMRs data on the CAP eservices website.

Search and Rescue

The Wing was alerted for 18 SAR Missions during 2018, resulting in 13 Finds. Totaling in 27 Air Sorties, and 68 Ground Sorties.

Counterdrug

No Counterdrug operations / missions assigned to NCWG for 2018

North Carolina Reserve Component Command Council (NC RCCC)

The NC RCCC is a quarterly meeting hosted by the NC Adjutant General of the NC National Guard Bureau. It is held for the purpose of building and improving relationships and leveraging partnerships among the North Carolina Reserve Components (e.g. NC Commanders of military installations across North Carolina. North Carolina Wing of CAP is invited to these meetings). The RCCC typically hosts the meetings at the North Carolina National Guard Joint Forces Headquarters in Raleigh, NC and provides a useful occasion for each Commander to meet the NC National Guard and other Senior military leaders and Commanders of North Carolinas Major Subordinate Commands. It is a great networking opportunity for all invited. NC Wing attended 4 Quarterly meetings in 2018.

Chapter II Aerospace Education

North Carolina Wing was very active with aerospace education during 2018. With most of the activities taking place on the local squadron levels, with activities such as the AEX program, model rocketry, and Orientation flights for various AFROTC/ AFJROTC Units as well as over 130 Wing Cadets during the Summer Encampment.

Chapter III CADET PROGRAMS

Cadet Programs

2018 was an active year for the Cadet Program in North Carolina as shown on the NC Wing Calendar. Cadet award Milestones reached 198 and were awarded as; 130 Wright Brothers Awards, 42 Billy Mitchell Awards, 17 Amelia Earhart Awards, 7 Gen. Ira Eaker Awards and 2 Gen Carl A. Spaatz Awards were awarded during this timeframe (01 Oct 2017 to 30 Sep 2018)

Cadet Activities

During 2018 Cadets from the Wing participated in a number of activities during the year from O- Flights, Cadet Competition, Drill & Ceremonies Academy, Cadet Airman NCO School, and Encampment. They also participated in Emergency Services Training at different events though out the wing, as well as being active with the Cyber Patriot Program
